2023 ANALYSIS

This year, frequent mood swings may make you feel depressed over small matters. You tend to lose motivation and undermine your efforts when things do not go as expected. Be more open-minded when dealing with success and failure. You can overcome all hurdles to gain success with constant learning and improvement. Do not let negativity accumulate and affect your career and relationships. With the Injury Star, you may get injured and require surgery. Pay attention to your surroundings when outdoors.
